That conference will soon be in full swing—hope the rope doesn't break.

It is useless to expect the people to do their Christmas buying early unless the merchants do their holiday advertising early. Smoke the pipe of wisdom.

When Fatty Arbuckle was "discovered" for the movies he was a spittoon cleaner in a rum-hole. He became wealthy, a drunken woman killer—nothing from nothing leaves nothing.

The chief of police of Chicago says one half of his force are booze bootleggers or engaged in some manner in handling it.

Conditions may be as loose in the other cities—but we don't know.

Even the man we meet on the street may have a flask on his hip—but we don't know.

But we know Uncle Sam is up against the hardest job of his whole career.

Old king rye claims he cannot be defeated—but we don't know.

Both are bound to win, but the final winner—we don't know.

Bondville

Several from here attended the street fair at Chester last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Carleton of Manchester Depot were at Mrs. A. A. Benson's the first of the week.

H. C. Williams and L. G. Roberts went to the state fair last Thursday.

Mrs. F. E. Lyons and daughter of Greenfield, Mass., were at Mrs. Flora Burbank's last week.

The Ladies' Aid Society will meet at the parsonage October 19. Dinner will be served at noon.

A church rally was held at the church last Tuesday afternoon. Rev. W. R. Davenport of St. Albans, Rev. H. S. Putnam of Windsor, Rev. E. H. Martin and wife of Bellows Falls were present and gave helpful talks to the audience. Mrs. Martin rendered a violin solo which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Flora Burbank and son, George, and Marion Burbank were in Greenfield, Mass., last week.
